V GENERAL PROVISIONS REGARDING THE ORDERS

1. Orders can be placed around the clock, 7 days a week. Only the User with the Account is entitled to place Orders.
2. The Retail/Member Prices given in the Shop next to the Product are indicated as the Net Retail Price/Net Member Prices or as the Gross Retail Price/Gross Member Price, depending on the User`s status.
3. The Prices are given in Euro and do not include the delivery costs and other Additional Fees (if applicable).
4. The total Order price is the price of the Product with taxes + delivery cost (if applicable). Information about other additional payments for the purchased Product in the Shop (if any) is given in the Order Summary before finalizing the purchase, i.e. clicking the Order and pay button. The Summary may contain for example, individual price adjustment due to participation in a loyalty programme, in which participants are offered benefits in the form of a reduction in the price of the Product – the price is then determined individually on the basis of an automatically made decision due to participation in the loyalty programme.

The total Order price does not include Additional costs e.g. costs of duties, taxes, tariffs or fees that the buyer may be obliged to bear according to the local rules of law due to delivery of Products purchased in the Shop to the territories outside the European Union. Additional costs – if applicable – are calculated by the local authorities after Products purchased on the basis of the Sales Agreement reaches country of their destination.

5. In case of placing the Order by the User being an entrepreneur with the seat within the territory of European Union, who filled in – in the Order form or in the Account – the VAT EU Number, the VAT EU Number is verified by VIES on each stage of placing the Order and the User is informed about the result of this verification at latest in the moment of selecting the option “Order and Pay”. Purchasing by this User of Products for the Net Retail Price/Net Member Price (VAT 0%) is possible only in case of positive verification of the User’s VAT EU Number by VIES.
6. Confirmation of the conclusion of the Sales Agreement is sent to the e-mail address provided by the User.

VI PLACING ORDERS

1. The Order may be placed only by the User with the Account and after logging to it on the Service.
2. Placing Order takes place through:
 - a) selection of the Product and adding it to an electronic cart,
 - b) going to the electronic cart,

4. The Seller, free of charge for the buyer, may deliver the Order in a larger number of packages, if the size of the Order exceeds the size of the euro pallet or when the weight of the Order exceeds 31.5 kg.
5. The Products are delivered on Business days from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM.
6. The buyer confirms receipt of the delivery on the consignment note. Before confirming the receipt of the shipment, the buyer should check that the shipment has not been damaged, and then sign the waybill. It is also recommended to check the content of the shipment. In the event of damage to the Products or any quantitative discrepancy of the shipment, the buyer should write a damage report in the presence of the courier, which is not a condition for submitting a complaint or exercising the right to withdraw from the Sales Agreement.
7. Together with the Order, the buyer receives from the Seller all required documents, including the warranty card (if applicable), and proof of purchase.
8. In case of purchase of a water treatment device, the installation of the device is carried out by an authorized service technician of the Seller after arranging the date of the installation with the buyer. The Shop is responsible for the risk of accidental loss or damage to the ordered Product until the receipt of the Product by the buyer who is a Consumer / Entrepreneur with consumer rights, except when the above-mentioned buyer has chosen a different method of delivery than indicated by the Shop.

IX COMPLAINTS AND WARRANTY

1. If the purchased Products show any defects during the warranty period or during the Seller's statutory liability for non-compliance of the goods with the Sales Agreement, the buyer informs the Seller which rights the buyer wants to exercise – rights resulting from the warranty or rights resulting from the Seller's statutory liability for non-compliance of the goods with the Sales Agreement.
2. Zepter INTL Poland as the Seller is liable to the buyer – Consumer for non-compliance of the Product (goods) with the Sales Agreement, which exists at the time of the Product's delivery and is detected within

- 2 years from that moment, unless the expiry date of the Product (goods) for use, indicated by the Seller, (their legal predecessors or persons acting on their behalf), is longer.
3. In addition, the Seller (Guarantor) provides a contractual warranty under which the Seller ensures the appropriate quality and proper functioning of the Products sold by the Seller, subject to the exclusion of Products or their elements specified in the Warranty Card (Zepter Warranty) available in the Service in the Documents for download tab.
 4. The Seller will respond to the complaint within 14 days from the date of its submission.
 5. Complaints may be submitted in any form, e.g. by phone at the Customer Service Office number or in electronic form to the e-mail address info@zepter.com.pl.
 6. The Product is compliant with the Sales Agreement if in particular:
 - a) the Products description, nature, quantity, quality, completeness and functionality is compliant with the Sales Agreement,
 - b) the Product is suitable for a specific purpose, for which the Product is needed by the Consumer and, about which the Consumer notified the Seller at the latest at the time of conclusion of the Sales Agreement and the Seller has not raised any objections to such intended use of the Product.
 7. In addition, in order to be considered as compliant with the Sales Agreement, the Product must:
 - a) be suitable for the purposes for which such goods are normally used, taking into account applicable law, technical standards or good practice;
 - b) be in such quantity and have such characteristics, including durability and safety, as are typical for goods of this type and which the Consumer can reasonably expect, taking into account the nature of the Product and public assurance given by the Seller, their legal predecessors or persons acting on their behalf, in particular in advertising or on label, unless the Seller proves, that:
 - the Seller did not know about the public assurance and, judging reasonably, could not have known about it,
 - prior to the conclusion of the Sales Agreement, the public assurance had been rectified in the same or comparable manner, as it was announced,
 - public assurance had no influence on the Consumer's decision to conclude a Sales Agreement;
 - c) be supplied with packaging, accessories and instructions, which the Consumer can reasonably expect;
 - d) be of the same quality as the sample or pattern that the Seller made available to the Consumer before the conclusion of the Sales Agreement, and correspond to the description of such sample or such pattern.
 8. The Seller is not liable for the non-compliance of the Products with the Sales Agreement, if the Consumer, at the latest at the time of conclusion of the Sales Agreement, has been clearly informed that the specific feature of the Product deviates from the requirements of compliance with Sales Agreement specified in p. 6 and 7 above, and if the Consumer has explicitly accepted it.
 9. If the Product is not compliant with the Sales Agreement, the Consumer may request its repair or replacement.
 10. The Seller may replace the Product when the Consumer requests repair, or the Seller may make a repair when the Consumer requests a replacement, if it proves impossible to bring the defected Product into conformity with the Sales Agreement in a manner chosen by the Consumer or, in comparison with the second possible way to bring it into compliance with the Sales Agreement, it would require excessive

- costs. If repair and replacement are impossible or would require excessive costs for the Seller, the Seller may refuse to bring the goods into conformity with the Sales Agreement. In such case the Consumer is entitled to submit a statement on price reduction or withdrawal from the Sales Agreement (p. 14 below).
11. When assessing whether the costs of repair/replacement is excessive for the Seller, all the circumstances of the case are taken into account, in particular the significance of the non-compliance of the Product with the Sales Agreement, the value of the Product, which is compliant with the Sales Agreement and excessive inconvenience for the Consumer resulting from the change in the manner of bringing the Product into conformity with the Sales Agreement.
 12. The Seller performs repair or replacement within a reasonable time from the moment, the Seller was informed by the Consumer about the lack of conformity with the Sales Agreement, and without excessive inconvenience to the Consumer, taking into account the specificity of the goods and the purpose for which the Consumer purchased them. The costs of repair or replacement, including in particular the costs of postage, transport, labour and materials, shall be borne by the Seller.
 13. The Consumer makes the Product, which is subject to repair or replacement, available to the Seller. The Seller collects the Product from the Consumer at his own expense. If the Product was installed before the detection of its non-compliance with the Sales Agreement, the Seller disassembles the Product and reassembles it after repair or replacement or orders these activities to be performed at the Seller's own expense. The Consumer is not obliged to pay for the normal use of the Product which has subsequently been replaced.
 14. If the Product is non-compliant with the Sales Agreement, the Consumer may submit a statement on price reduction or a statement on withdrawal from the Sales Agreement when:
 - a) the Seller refused to bring the Product into conformity with the Sales Agreement,
 - b) the Seller did not brought the Product into conformity with the Sales Agreement,
 - c) the lack of conformity of the Product with the Sales Agreement persists, despite the fact that the Seller tried to bring the Product into conformity with the Sales Agreement,
 - d) the lack of conformity of the Product with the Sales Agreement is so significant that it justifies an immediate price reduction or withdrawal from the Sales Agreement,
 - e) from the Seller's statement or circumstances, it is clear that the Seller will not bring the Product into conformity with the Sales Agreement within a reasonable time or without excessive inconvenience to the Consumer.
 15. The reduced price must remain in such proportion to the price resulting from the Sales Agreement in which the value of the Product non-compliant with the Sales Agreement remains to the value of the Product compliant with the Sales Agreement.
 16. The Seller shall reimburse the Consumer with the amounts due as a result of exercising of the right to reduce the price immediately, no later than within 14 days from the date of receipt of the Consumer's statement on the price reduction.
 17. The Consumer may not withdraw from the Sales Agreement if the lack of conformity of the Product with the Sales Agreement is insubstantial. It is presumed that the lack of conformity of the Product with the Sales Agreement is substantial.
 18. If the lack of conformity with the Sales Agreement concerns only some of the Products delivered under the Sales Agreement, the Consumer may withdraw from the Sales Agreement only in relation to these Products, as well as in relation to other Products purchased by the Consumer together with the Products, which are non-compliant with the Sales Agreement, if it is not reasonable to expect the Consumer to agree to keep only Products compliant with the Sales Agreement.

19. In the event of withdrawal from the Sales Agreement, the Consumer immediately returns the Product to the Seller at the Seller's expense. The Seller reimburses the Consumer with the price of the Product immediately, no later than within 14 days from the date of receipt by the Seller of the Product or a proof of its return to the Seller. The Seller shall refund the price using the same method of payment as used by the Consumer, unless the Consumer has expressly agreed to a different method of refund, which does not involve any costs for him.
20. The provisions of p. 1-19 apply to the Entrepreneur with consumer rights.
21. With respect to Entrepreneurs – statutory liability of the Seller for physical defects of Products (rękojmia) is excluded. The warranty as indicated in p. 3 applies.

X WITHDRAWAL FROM THE SALES AGREEMENT (AS A DISTANCE CONTRACT)

1. The Consumer may withdraw from the Sales Agreement without giving a reason by submitting a statement on withdrawal in any form within 14 days from the date of delivery of the Product, including by e-mail to the address info@zepter.com.pl. To meet the deadline, it is enough to send a statement before its expiry.
2. In the event of withdrawal from the Sales Agreement, the agreement is considered null and void. What the parties have provided to each other, is returned in an unchanged state.
3. The Consumer is obliged to return the Product to the Seller immediately, no later than 14 days from the date of the withdrawal from the Sales Agreement (it is enough to send back the Product within the time above indicated), unless the Seller offered to collect the Product from the Consumer. In such a situation – the Seller will collect the Products via a representative of the courier company at the Seller's own expense after prior appointment.
4. Address for the return of purchased Products: ZEPTER INTERNATIONAL POLAND Sp. z o.o., ul. Krechowicka 38, 05-230 Kobyłka.
5. The Consumer is responsible for reducing the value of the Product as a result of using it in a way other than necessary to determine the nature, characteristics and functioning of the Product.
6. If the Consumer, placing the Order, chose a method of delivery of the Product other than the cheapest usual delivery method offered by the Seller, the Seller is not obliged to reimburse the Consumer for additional costs incurred by them.
7. The direct costs of returning of the Product in connection with the exercise of the right to withdraw from the Sales Agreement shall be borne by the Consumer, including the costs of return in the event that the Product, due to its nature, cannot be sent back by post in the usual way, i.e. when the cost of sending back is higher than a regular postal parcel.
8. In the event of withdrawal by the Consumer from the Sales Agreement, the Seller will reimburse the Customer with the payment for the Product within 14 days from the date of receipt of the statement on withdrawal. The Seller may withhold the refund of the payments received from the Consumer until the Product is returned to the Seller or the Consumer provides proof of its sending back, whichever occurs first. The refund will be made using the same method of payment as used by the Consumer, unless the Consumer has expressly agreed to a different method of refund, which does not involve any additional costs for the Consumer.

9. The statement of withdrawal from the Sales Agreement can be found in the Service in the Documents for download tab, however, the statement may be submitted in any form. The model withdrawal form can be submitted on a form (Appendix 2 to the Polish Consumer Rights Act of May 30, 2014), which the Consumer may use if necessary.
10. The Consumer is not entitled to withdraw from the Sales Agreement (as a distance contract) in the following cases:
 - a) when the purchased Product is non-prefabricated, but manufactured according to the Consumer's specifications or the Product used to meet the Consumer's individualized needs (personalised Products),
 - b) when the purchased Product is a good which is liable to deteriorate or expire rapidly,
 - c) when the purchased Product has been delivered as sealed (e.g. coffee, cosmetics), is not suitable for return due to health protection or hygiene reasons and was unsealed after delivery,
 - d) when the purchased Product is, after delivery, according to its nature, inseparably mixed with other items.
11. The provisions set forth in p. 1-10 apply to Entrepreneur with consumer rights.

Zepter INTL is Poland entitled to block the User from accessing the services provided by Zepter INTL Poland without the User's consent, after calling such User to cease the infringement and setting at least 7 days, depending in particular on the nature and seriousness of the breach and the possibility of damage on the part of Zepter INTL Poland or any third parties, in the following circumstances caused by an act or omission of the User:
 - a) providing someone else's, false or outdated data,
 - b) use the Service in a manner that violates the provisions of generally applicable law or the rights of third parties, principles of social coexistence or decency,
 - c) gross non-compliance with the provisions of these T&C
4. Zepter INTL Poland has got the right to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect in the event of a breach of these T&C by the User and if the User – despite the summons referred to above – does not cease the violations as requested by the Seller.
5. The User violating the provisions of these T&C is liable for damages towards Zepter INTL Poland as well as to third parties.

XIII. TERMINATION OF THE AGREEMENT (EXCLUDING SALES CONTRACTS)

1. The User and Zepter INTL Poland may terminate the Agreement at any time and without any reason, preserving the rights acquired by the other party before the termination and taking into account the following provisions.
2. The registered User terminates, for example, the Agreement regarding the Account by sending Zepter INTL Poland a statement of termination, e.g. by e-mail, enabling Zepter INTL Poland to read the statement.
3. Zepter INTL Poland terminates the Agreement by sending an appropriate statement to the User to the e-mail address provided by the User during registration. The statement of termination regarding the Account will be sent within 14 days before the planned date of removal of the Account by Zepter INTL Poland.
4. Zepter INTL Poland has got the right to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect in the event of a breach of these T&C by the User and if the User – despite being summoned to cease – does not stop violations as requested by the Seller.

XIV. LIABILITY

1. Zepter INTL Poland makes every effort to ensure that the use of services provided in the Service is safe for Users, including uninterrupted operations. If it is necessary to carry out, in particular, maintenance works or other necessary improvements that may hinder the User's access to the Service, Zepter INTL Poland will inform Users about this, indicating the approximate time of lasting of such difficulties.

2. Zepter INTL Poland is not responsible for damage resulting from improper operation of any services in the Service resulting from force majeure, i.e. circumstances beyond Zepter INTL Poland's control, the occurrence of which could not have been predicted even with due diligence.
3. Zepter INTL Poland shall not be liable for damage resulting from the User's act or omission, which occurs, among other things, as a result of improper use of services offered by Zepter INTL Poland, including use contrary to the law or these T&C.

XV. COMPLAINTS REGARDING THE FUNCTIONING OF THE SERVICE

1. The User who notices a malfunction or lack of operation of the Service is requested to immediately inform Zepter INTL Poland about this e.g. by e-mail to the address Zepter INTL Poland indicated in these T&C for contact, in order to enable Zepter INTL Poland to take adequate diagnostic and corrective actions as soon as possible.
2. All complaints regarding the functioning of the Service will be responded as soon as possible, up to a maximum of 14 days from the date of their receipt by Zepter INTL Poland e.g., and the User will be notified of the actions taken by Zepter INTL Poland as a result of the complaint, via the communication channel indicated by the User, and in the absence of such indication – in the same way in which the complaint was submitted.

XVI. AMENDING THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Zepter INTL Poland is entitled to change the provisions of these T&C in order to take into account changes in generally applicable law, changes in the functionalities offered in the Service, introduction of new services in the Service, clarification of issues that raise doubts of Users.
2. Change of the provisions of these T&C will not lead to loss of User's rights, if such rights were previously acquired in accordance with law.
3. The amendment to these T&C is effective after 14 days from the date of publication of information about the planned change on the main page of the Service. Zepter INTL Poland informs registered Users about the planned amendment to these T&C also by e-mail at least 14 days before such amendment enters into force. The User who does not accept the amendment to these T&C notifies Zepter INTL Poland about it by e-mail to the following address: info@zepter.com.pl, which is considered as termination of the Agreement including the Account, by the User, and the User is obliged to stop using the Service.
4. There will be no need to make changes to these T&C in the event of, among other things, , changing the form and/or nature of running the Service, in particular change of the graphic design of the Service, adding new functionalities, etc., unless such changes are contrary to the provisions of these T&C or include the loss of rights acquired by Users.

XVII. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. Any disputes arising in connection with the use of the Service or the application of these T&C, if the parties are Entrepreneurs, will be settled amicably in the first place, through appropriate negotiations. If the parties fail to reach an agreement, the dispute between them shall be settled by the Polish common court competent for the registered office of Zepter INTL Poland.
